Rear Admiral Rufus L. Taylor, USN
Director of Naval Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20301

Dear Admiral Taylor:

The biographic sketch of [redacted] which you gave to me has been seen by our people. There doesn't seem to be a place for him here at this time.

Looking to the future, there are no indications that we would have a suitable spot for [redacted]. As you know, that situation could change; but I believe he might prefer to look around elsewhere now.

I thank you for bringing [redacted] to my attention. If anything should turn up for him with us, I will let you know.

Faithfully yours,

Marshall S. Carter
Lieutenant General, USA
Deputy Director
